Important to MILLERS & MILL OWNERS!

THE Undersigned would respectfully inform those engaged in the Milling Business in N. C., that he keeps constantly on hand, and will supply at the shortest notice, that almost invaluable article

YOUNG'S IMPROVED PATENT SMUT AND SCREENING MACHINE.

The only Machine of the kind that has stood the test and given satisfaction to the public. It has surplanted every Smut Machine yet offered in the State, more or less of which has been taken down to make room for it. The public need fear no imposition, as there are now some 280 Machines running in N. C.; and I wish to offer no other references than the gentlemen who are using them, whose expectations have been more than realized in their performance. It not only thoroughly cleanses the Wheat of smut, but also purifies it of all other substances, almost to perfection. It takes up but 4 feet square in the Mill, and requires but little power. It is warranted for five years against breaking or wearing out, and also to retain its cleaning qualities for that time.

There are a number of these Machines through which 100,000 bushels of Wheat have been cleaned, and they have never been out of order one day.

There was awarded to it the Premium at the Maryland State Fair, and a Premium with a Silver Medal, at the Fair of the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore, last Fall.

WHEREAS, The Southern States of this Union have, since the formation of the Federal Government, fostered and nourished the manufacturing and mining interests of the non-slaveholding States, by voting to impose high taxes on importations from foreign countries, which might come in competition with the productions of the labor and industry of the aforesaid non-slaveholding States; and whereas, these acts of generosity and self-sacrifice have been unappreciated at the North, and the people of that section show a disposition to make unceasing attacks upon our institutions and property; therefore

Resolved, That the State of North Carolina feels herself under no further obligations, by the votes of her representatives in Congress or otherwise, to protect the "home industry" of the non-slaveholding States.

Resolved, That if our own industry needs protection, it can be better effected by State than by Congressional legislation.

Resolved, That the present tariff is high enough to afford sufficient revenue to carry on an economically administered government, and ought not to be increased.

Resolved, That the foregoing Resolutions be transmitted to our members in both Houses of Congress, with a request that they lay them before their respective Houses, and with the further request that they vote against any change in the present tariff laws which may have the effect to protect or encourage the manufacturing or mining interests of the free States, or which may have the effect to increase the cost to the Southern consumers of any of the products of foreign countries.

49. Resolutions in relation to the Vermont resolutions, as follows:

WHEREAS, A message has recently been transmitted to the Senate by his Excellency David S. Reid, enclosing "Resolutions for the promotion of peace," forwarded by the Governor of Vermont as having passed the Legislature of that State: And whereas, the Legislature of the said State has recently passed an act for the nullification of an act of Congress passed at its last session, on which the peace and harmony of this Union mainly depended; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That the Governor of this State be requested to send back to the Governor of Vermont the aforesaid "Resolutions for the promotion of peace," with the declaration that North Carolina knows too well what is due to herself to receive from a sister State resolutions of that character, when the State so adopting and transmitting them has been the first in the Confederacy to assume to herself the right of violating the Constitution of the United States, and bringing into jeopardy the peace and safety of the Union.

50. Resolution authorizing repairs of the Raleigh and Gaston Road, as follows:

Resolved, That the President and commissioners of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad be authorized to anticipate the usual receipts of said Road, by the purchase on time of two hundred and fifty tons of iron, for the purpose of repairing said Road; and that they be authorized to pledge the receipts of said Road for the payment of said debt; and the said iron, when the charter shall be accepted by the stockholders under the charter granted by the present General Assembly, shall be sold for the benefit of the State.

Provided, That the State shall not in any manner, or in any event, be held responsible or liable for the purchase money which may be due for said two hundred and fifty tons of irons.

MR. CALHOUN. The Mobile Tribune, in noticing a new work on Mr. Calhoun, gives the following reminiscence:

"We saw Mr. Calhoun at the Memphis Convention. When he returned home from it, he was received every where on the Mississippi river with the warmest demonstration of affectionate admiration. At Natchez the boat (the Maria) stopped near midnight, and the illustrious passenger was conducted to one of the halls of the city, where there was a ball. Beautiful women and brave men were in the midst of the dance, when the approach of Mr. Calhoun was announced. Instantly the dance stopped. He was led into the room and surrounded by a great multitude. Mr. Davis, now senator, received him in an eulogistic speech—too eulogistic for good taste. When he closed, Mr. Calhoun rose to reply with a timidity that was painful—a sensation produced doubtless by the extravagant flattery of Mr. Davis. He was almost incapable of speaking. He observed in abrupt language, that he was not accustomed to address "miscellaneous," audiences—and seeing that the word was ill chosen, substituted "heterogeneous," which was not much better. Finally blushing like a girl, he declared that he was unaccustomed to speak unless to a fixed topic, and so sank down to his seat in confusion. There was hardly a man present that could not have acquitted himself better. The audience however, saw the cause of his embarrassment, and the hall rang with cheers, as though the spectators were seeking to encourage the confidence of a school boy delivering his maiden speech.

We were once struck at hearing Mr. Calhoun, in an animated conversation, declare that the conclusions of impulse are more reliable than those of mere intellect—a declaration, however, qualified by the assertion that the impulse must be under the guidance of intellect. In this, it struck us at the time, he announced one of the principal causes of his own greatness—the source of his almost prophetic investigations of the result of public events and measures."

THE CONVENTION—WORK CUT OUT FOR CONSIDERATION. On Saturday, Mr. Edmunds of Halifax, made a report, from the committee on the Executive Department, which was ordered to be printed.

We give the principal points of the reported organization, omitting the article on the Militia:

A Governor, who shall be 30 years old, a native citizen of the United States, and to hold his office for four years—not re-eligible. The Governor to be elected by the people, at the time of electing members of the General Assembly, and by the same electors. His salary to be $5,000.

A lieutenant Governor; to have the same qualifications as the Governor; to be elected at the same time, and hold office also for four years; to act, in case of impeachment or removal of Governor, or his death, refusal, inability to qualify, resignation or absence from the State. The Lieutenant Governor is to be President of the Senate, with a casting vote alone—and, while acting as President of Senate to have the compensation of the Speaker of the House of Delegates.

A Secretary of State; to be elected by the people.

A Treasurer and Auditor, to be elected by the Legislature.

A Board of Public Works, consisting of three Commissioners to be elected by the Legislature—one to hold office two years, one for four years, and one for six years. Their powers and duties to be specified by the Legislature.

Mr. Wise moved a resolution that the committee on the Legislative Department enquire into the expediency of incorporating in the Constitution a provision, which he proposed, giving a qualified veto to the Governor.

In the Supplement to-morrow these important documents, with other resolutions offered, will appear in full. Richmond Enquirer.

JOHN VAN BUREN. The New York Express says, that at Tammany Hall on the 8th inst., there was a supper in the midst of the festivities of the ball; and at table several letters were read from gentlemen who had been invited and declined coming. At the end of each letter, cheers were given, as usual, for the writers, and these were uniformly followed with cries of "three groans for Martin Van Buren," which were given with a will. What made it particularly pleasant was the fact that among the guests at table was Mr. John Van Buren, who, however, is said to have taken it quite coolly, only remarking that he hoped the gentlemen would not make themselves hoarse by their exertions.

The Janus-faced John might with truth have exclaimed, on the occasion:

"Tempora mutantur, et nos mutamur in illis."

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION. Up to the 4th inst. the following articles from South Carolina, had been received and approved by the Central Committee at Washington, for exhibition at the great London Fair:

W. Seabroook, Sea Island Cotton; J. R. Jones, Upland Cotton; J. V. Jones, Upland Cotton; Wade Hampton, Upland Cotton; W. W. McLeod, Sea Island Cotton; E. T. Heriot, clean rice; J. J. Ward, sheaf rice; V. D. V. Jamison, spirits turpentine; J. Artman, one phæton carriage; Chas. B. Capers, Cypress canoe; Graniteville Factory, shirting and drilling; Charleston Factory, shirting and sheetings; Eugene B. Bell, palmetto, oak, cedar and poplar; J. B. DeSaufoure, sweet gum wood; South Carolina Railroad Company, one circular table; Mary H. Mellichamp, one basket.

No doubt many of those who voted against the Equal Suffrage Bill in the Senate, were influenced in their votes, by selfish motives. They are afraid to trust their election to the people, fearing that they might not be returned as Senators, by adopting so Democratic and Republican a measure.

HOW MCDONOGH BECAME A MILLIONAIRE. The New Orleans Picayune notices a conversation among several of the distinguished lawyers, recently, during some idle moments in a Court Room, when one of them related the following reminiscence of an interview:

I said to Mr. McDonogh, you are a very rich man, and I know that you intend to leave all your property to be expended in charitable purposes. I have been thinking over your singular life, and I want you to give me some advice in regard to the great success which has attended you, for I, too, would like to become very rich, having a family, so as to leave my heirs wealthy. Well, said he, get up, sir; and as I arose from my arm-chair, he took my seat, and turning to me as if he was proprietor and I his clerk, said, pointing to a common chair in which he had been sitting, sit down, sir, and I will tell you how I became a rich man, and how by following three rules you can become as rich as myself.

"I first came to Louisiana," continued Mr. McDonogh, "when it was a Spanish colony, as the agent for a house in Baltimore and a house in Boston, to dispose of certain cargoes of goods. After I had settled up their accounts and finished their agency, I set up to do business for myself. I had become acquainted with the Spanish Governor, who had taken a fancy to me, although I had never so much as flattered him, and through his influence I obtained a contract for the army by which I made $10,000. After this, I gave a splendid dinner to the principal officers of the army and the Governor, and by it obtained another contract, by which I made $30,000. This is what the Creoles and the French do not understand.—I mean the spending of money judiciously. They are afraid of spending money. A man who wishes to make a fortune, must first make a show of liberality, and spend money in order to obtain it. By that dinner which I gave to the Spanish authorities, I obtained their good will and esteem; and by this I was enabled to make a large sum of money. To succeed in life, then, you must obtain the favor and influence of the opulent, and the authorities of the country in which you live. This is the first rule."

"The natural span of man's life," observed Mr. McDonogh, "is too short, if he is abandoned to his own resources, to acquire great wealth, and therefore in order to realize a fortune you must exercise your influence and power over those who in point of wealth are inferior to you, and by availing yourself of their talents, knowledge and information, turn them to your own advantage. This is the second rule." Here the old man made a long pause as if lost in thought, and seeing him remaining silent, I asked, "and is this all?" "No," said he, "there is a third and last rule which is all-essential for you to observe, in order that success may attend your efforts." "And what is that?" I inquired." "Why, sir," said he, "it is prayer." "You must pray to the Almighty with fervor and zeal, and you will be sustained in all your desires. I never prayed sincerely to God in all my life, without having my prayer answered satisfactorily." He stopped, and I said "is this all?" He answered, "Yes, sir; follow my advice and you will become a rich man." And he arose and left me.

"Well," asked one of the company, "have you followed his advice?"

"No," said the counsellor, "I have not for certain reasons; I do not wish to be considered harsh in drawing the conclusions I did from Mr. McDonogh's advice. They were, that when a man desires to become rich, he must corrupt the rich, oppress the poor, and look to God to sustain him."

BALTIMORE, Jan. 27—5 p. m.

At noon to-morrow the steamer Atlantic will have been one month at sea, and up to the time of closing my letter no tidings have been received of her. A revenue cutter sailed from Halifax, on Saturday last, for Sable Island, which may bring some accounts of her in a few days. The steamer Canada is also now out ten days from Liverpool, and may be expected at Halifax to-morrow. She will bring dates from Liverpool to the 18th, and strong hopes are entertained that she will announce the return of the Atlantic to Liverpool.

The full returns of the census of Maryland have now been received, and foot up as follows:

Whole population, 1850, - -	575,140
Whole population, 1840, - -	467,567
Increase of 1850, - - - -	107,573

Of this increase 66,409 is in Baltimore city, and 41,004 in the counties. Baltimore county has increased 9,523, Alleghany county 7,133, Frederick 3,510, and Somerset 2,954. Carroll county is the only one that has decreased, having fallen off 2,122.

The slave population of the State has decreased, as compared with 1840, to the extent of 541, and the free negroes have increased 11,221. The whole number of slaves now in the State is 89,178, and of free negroes 73,158.

The exports of Baltimore for the week ending on Thursday last amounted in value to $121,005 38.

The fugitive slave, Stephen Bennet, belonging to Captain Gallup, of this city, whose arrest, examination, and delivery to his master I announced in my letter of Saturday, was not brought back to this city, his freedom having been purchased for $700 by his friends at Columbia, where he has been living for three years past, and had accumulated some property, and has a wife and children. Mr. Gallup gave him an excellent character for honesty and fidelity, and after manumitting him, said that he would give $1,500 to have him back, if assured that he would remain. The negro also spoke in the highest terms of his master—acknowledged that he had always been kind and good to him, and said that he would not have run away, had he not overheard his master's brother advising him to sell him to Georgia.

THE MARKETS. In the Baltimore market this morning flour was steady but not active. Sales of 800 bbls. Howard street at $4 56½. Nothing doing in City Mills. I quote nominally at $4 56. Rye flour and corn meal unchanged. Grain is steady. Sales of red wheat, good to prime, at 100 a 103 cts.; white do., 104 a 115 cents. Corn is firmer. Sales of yellow at 60 a 62 cents, and white at 66 a 67 cts. Oats, 47 cents. Rye, 72 cents. Provisions are firm—price unchanged; sales small. The grocery market is steady—prices unchanged. Whiskey is selling at 25 a 26 cts., in hhds. and bbls. The offering of beef cattle at the scales to-day reached 800 head, 50 of which were left over, 300 driven to Philadelaphia, and the balance sold to city butchers at prices ranging from $2 50 to $3 75 per 100 lbs. on the hoof, equal to $5 a $7 25 net, and averaging $3 12½ gross. Sales of hogs brisk at $5 75 per 100 lbs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27, 1851.

Speech from Mr. Clay—The Public Domain—New York and the Compromise—Charles Sumner—California Dry Docks, &c.

Mr. Clay will to-morrow deliver his views in opposition to one of Mr. Benton's Missouri land bills, and it is hoped that we shall hear from him strong arguments against the modern policy of squandering the public domain.

The Senate put an extinguisher, last Saturday, upon one project, involving twenty millions of acres. They also tabled a project for driving out the remaining tribes of Indians, in Minnesota, and buying their lands for the purpose of giving them away—thus doing a double injustice: laying a burden on the Treasury, and oppressing the Indians. It is time some general and equal mode of disposing of the public domain should be agreed upon.

I learn from Albany that the Legislature will certainly pass resolutions sustaining the compromise measures, and declaring that the fugitive slave act must be respected and executed while it is the law of the land. But such resolutions do not preclude the agitation of the repeal question. Why not declare at once that the whole compromise must be regarded as a final settlement of the whole subject?

I am not quite so certain now, as I have been, that Mr. Charles Summer will not be elected U. S. Senator from Massachusetts. But there is some ground for hope that either Gen. Cushing or Charles G. Greene—national and enlightened men—may be elected.

Advices from California show that Col. Fremont has no chance of being re-elected as Senator. From a highly intelligent source, I learn that Mr. Wetherell, formerly of Baltimore, will be elected.

COL. AVERY'S SPEECH ON CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. We take great pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the learned, eloquent, and patriotic speech of Burke's talented son, W. W. Avery. It will be found on the first page of this paper, and will amply compensate the reader for the time consumed in its persual; and, therefore, we earnestly invite every one to read it attentively from beginning to end.

RALEIGH:

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1851.

THE ADJOURNMENT.

Both Houses of the General Assembly of this State adjourned sine die, on Wednesday morning last at eight o'clock A. M., after a session of seventy-two days. The session just expired was about the same in length as that two years since. All the members have left for their homes. We wish them a safe return to their constituents, and much happiness in all their personal relations.

Resolutions of thanks were unanimously passed in both Houses to the Speakers respectively, to which Mr. Speaker Edwards and Mr. Speaker Dobbin responded in the most appropriate terms. On adjourning the Senate, Mr. Speaker Edwards said:

GENTLEMEN:—I heartily thank you for your generous approval of my administration of the duties of the Chair. But whatever merit there may be in that administration, it is due rather to you than to any proficiency or skill of my own. By your constant observance of all the rules of order, and courteous deportment in all that concerned your intercourse as Members and as gentlemen, you rendered the task committed to me of easy performance and not without great pleasure. This might have been expected of the Senate of North Carolina, distinguished as it always has been for the urbanity of its members and their love of order and decorum.

If our common labors, gentlemen, shall be crowned with the happy results which honest intentions and enlightened and patriotic devotion to the public interests—so signally manifest in all your deliberations—always deserve and rarely, if ever, fail to produce, we shall ever be able to recur with pride and delight, to our participation in the public service at the present Session of the General Assembly. May such, gentlemen, be the good fortune of each and all of you, is my fervant wish.

We should have been more than men, if we had not, in the progress of our labors, been sometimes betrayed into excitement, tinctured no little by acerbity, both of feeling and remark; but as men, it can cost us no effort to regard these things as fugitive as the moment in which they had their birth, and to remember them as among the things that have been. In taking leave of each other, and returning home to mingle again with our friends and constituents, let us not forget that though widely separated, we are still brethren of the same family, and that our common household is North Carolina, the whole of North Carolina, and nothing but North Carolina—always remembering that the highest praise of the good citizen is, that he is dutiful to his country.

I bid you farewell, and pray you to take along with you, my fervent prayers for the health and happiness of each and all of you.

In the House of Commons Mr. Speaker Dobbin, prefaced the proclamation of adjournment with the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS:

The time has arrived when our legislative labors must close. The hour of separation is now at hand. I have not language at command to convey to you the grateful emotions I experience from your generous appreciation of my earnest efforts to preside over your deliberations with impartiality and integrity.

Gentlemen, I thank you—from my heart I thank you—for this manifestation of kindness in the resolution just adopted.

This theatre on which for many weeks past we have been playing our part, is one where may well have been expected those exhibitions, ever the result of the promptings of patriotism—State pride—personal ambition, and sectional jealousy.

Permit me, gentlemen, to tender you my congratulations, that patriotism and State pride have triumphed on this occasion, and to express to you my sincere hope, and my confident expectation, that your arduous and protracted labors will contribute to the honor of our beloved State, the prosperity and happiness of our common constituents. And if, in moments of excitement, personal ambition, or sectional jealousy, and impulsive ardour hath prompted any of us to inflict a wound—let the wound now be healed—let the very recollection of its existence be chased from the memory by those generous impulses and kindly emotions which we all feel, and cannot stifle at this moment of our parting, perhaps never to meet again.

Gentlemen, I bid you all an affectionate farewell. But before separation, let us, on this occasion of melancholy pleasure, not be content with the renewal of our pledges of personal friendship, but unite in one heartfelt resolve to cultivate and encourage a feeling of affection for our State; to aim not to be unworthy of an ancestry who began the great struggle for liberty in seventy-six; to strive to rouse up that State pride, without which no State can be great. Let us ever be proud of our great country—our Union, but let us love with peculiar affection, the Old North State. Let us determine to forget that there is an "East" and a "West" in our State, but have a patriotism comprehensive enough to take in the mountains of the West and the valleys of the East. But I detain you. Farewell! Peace, prosperity, and happiness attend you! Under the resolutions of the Legislature, the only duty I now have to perform, is to pronounce the House adjourned without day.

ACTS OF THE LATE SESSION.

We publish to-day the captions of the Acts of the late session of the Legislature, both public and private. We have given the Revenue Act and the Equal Suffrage Act in full, and a condensed statement of the Act in relation to the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, together with some of the most important Resolutions in full. We may have omitted captions of some of the Acts, but this was unavoidable, collected as they were at the close of the session, amid confusion and bustle, and when so many things were claiming our attention. We think, however, that we have given all of much public importance.

An immense mass of business was transacted by the late Legislature, as will "more fully appear" when the laws shall have been printed and sent out among the people.

A great deal of labor was performed by the respective Committees; and towards the close of the session, after the Reports of the Committees had been handed in, both Houses applied themselves to their duties, day and night, with increased vigor and zeal. We do not propose, at this time, to review the events of the session or to submit any comments upon them. We may do this hereafter, as occasion may offer or require.

We had the advantage, during the late session, of the services of William B. Gulick, Esq., of the Eastern Carolina Republican, as a Reporter for our paper in the Commons. Our sketches of the proceedings, we flatter ourselves, have given general satisfaction, and they were as full, on all occasions, as our space would permit. We are under obligations to Mr. Gulick for his attention in this department, and for the intelligence and fidelity with which he discharged his duties.

Mr. Gulick, it will be seen by his Prospectus, has determined to remove his establishment to Goldsborough. We wish him the most abundant success in his new location. Mr. Gulick has made editing a profession, and he understands it. We are glad to know that his talents and services are duly appreciated by the party.

CAPITAL OF FLORIDA. Resolutions have been introduced into the Florida Legislature for the removal of the seat of government from Tallahassee to some other point. Certain persons are designated as commissoners to select a suitable place to which to remove it. In the selection of the site, they are to take into consideration its central position, healthy location, and the interests of the State at large, and to report at the next session of the Legislature.

We have received from John Baxter, Esq. of Henderson County, a communication over his own signature, in reply to the late Card which appeared in this paper over the signature of the Hon. Thomas L. Clingman. Mr. Baxter, it appears, made and printed a Speech, in which he spoke quite freely of Mr. Clingman, and Mr. Clingman briefly noticed this Speech in the Card referred to. Mr. Baxter's Speech was printed, and, we suppose, widely circulated. Copies of it were sent, we believe, to the members of the Legislature; and under these circumstances, as Mr. Clingman's remarks on the occasion had not been printed, we deemed it due to him that he should have a hearing in our columns—especially as his notice of Mr. Baxter's Speech was quite brief. But here, so far as we are concerned, this matter must stop. This controversy is rather personal than political, and with controversies of a personal nature we have nothing to do as a political Editor. We cannot publish either Mr. Baxter's reply to Mr. Clingman, or his Speech.

We will return Mr. Baxter's manuscript to him by Mail, if he desires us to do so.

At the time of writing this, we have the coldest spell of weather experienced in this latitude the present season. On Wednesday night last, at 12 o'clock, the thermometer stood at 25 degrees, and at sunrise on Thursday morning, it stood at 20 degrees. On Thursday night at 12 o'clock, the thermometer was at 15 degreee, and at sunrise Friday morning it stood 10 degrees above zero. This is the coldest weather we have had since the cold Saturday, the 9th of February, 1835. Usually, the thermometer does not fall lower here than eighteen degrees. Our citizens have the prospect now of laying up an abundant supply of ice.

CONGRESSIONAL. In the Senate, yesterday, a report was received from the Secretary of War, embracing the plans and estimates for furnishing to Washington city a supply of pure water, which was referred to the Committee on the Public Buildings and Grounds. Mr. Ewing presented a memorial from members of the constitutional convention of the State Ohio, in favor of the establishment of a line of mail steamers to Africa, and the promotion of the cause of colonization; which was referred. The bill for reimbursing the State of Missouri on account of the two per cent. fund was taken up and considered, and, at the request of Mr. Clay, was postponed till to-day. The bill to increase the capital of the Gas-light Company of Washington was considered, amended, and passed to a third reading. The bill relative to the preservation of the lives of passengers in vessels propelled in whole or in part by steam was considered. The bill reported by the Judicary Committee for settling the land titles in California was discussed by Mr. Benton, who opposed it, and Mr. Berrien, who reported it. Mr. Benton proposed amendments to the bill; but no question was taken when the Senate adjourned, after 4 o'clock.

In the House, a motion to suspend the rules, for the purpose of introducing a resolution to make the internal improvement bill a special order, was disagreed to. Mr. Bayly moved to suspend the rules, to enable him to move that certain appropriation bills be made the special order for to day, and every day not assigned for other special orders; which was not agreed to. The deficiency appropriation bill was taken up and discussed at length

Union of Tuesday last.

FIGHT IN THE INDIANA CONVENTION. Indianapolis Jan. 24. This afternoon, a scene occured in the Indiana State Convention, which is not over creditable to that body. The subject under consideration was the proposition to appoint three commissioners to revise and modify the laws, and to reform the mode of practice at law. Many hard things were said, against the legal profession generally, and Mr. Hovey, delegate from Posey, (who is a lawyer) said he could put his finger on three men in the Convention who expected to be appointed the Commissioners. Some one called out, "Name them," and a member sitting near Mr. Hovey called out "Kent." Mr. Kent then rose much excited, and called Mr. Hovey a "coward," whereupon Mr. Hovey advanced to Mr. Kent's seat, and struck him a blow in the eye. Both parties were immediately ordered into custody, and a long explanation took place, amid great excitement. Finally apologies were made, and, by a vote of the Convention, the reporters were directed to smother the whole affair.

THE CALHOUN MANUSCRIPTS. As an answer to a communication in yesterday's Evening News, addressed to the "Hon. John E. Carew," as Chairman of the Special Joint Committee on the publication of Mr. Calhoun's Manuscripts, we re-publish below the resolutions reported by that Committee and adopted by the Legislature. With the adoption of these Resolutions, ended Mr. Carew's connection with the subject:

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand dollars be appropriated for the purpose of stereotyping and publishing the two manuscript works of the late Hon. John C. Calhoun, comprising a Treatise on Government, and a Discourse on the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable Editor to contract for and superintend the publication within the State, of said manuscripts; and that said agent, after reserving for the use of the State five hundred copies of the work, shall place the stereotype plates and the entire proceeds of sales at the disposal of the family of Mr. Calhoun.

FUGITIVE SLAVE ARRESTED. A fugitive slave was brought before Commissioner McAllister on yesterday, and remanded to his owners. He was one of the party that left with the negroes that Mr. Taylor arrested here in August last. He was perfectly satisfied to go back; said before the Commissioner that he did not know he was running away when he left; that his associates invited him to a wedding up the country, but he accompanied them to Pennsylvania. He said he was satisfied with his experience in Pennsylvania, and would have gone back before, if he had known the way, and could have returned conveniently. Harrisburg Union.

ANOTHER FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE. Yesterday, Stephen Bennet, alias Bill Baker, was brought into the United States District Court on a habeas corpus. It was alleged by the claimant Ewd. B. Gallup, that the respondent, Bennet, absconded from his employment at Havre de Grace, in the State of Maryland, some three years ago. It appears that Bennet was arrested in Columbia, Pennsylania, on Thursday night, by officer Snyder, of Baltimore, asisted by officer Hinblink, of Lancaster. The respondent was indentified by persons to whom he had been hired by his master, Mr. Gallup. He was remanded to the custody of the Marshal.

Philadelphia Inquirer, Jan. 25.

We think it due to the Speakers of both Houses to say, that they eminently deserved, as they cordially and unanimously received, the warm thanks of their respective members, for the urbanity, dignity and impartiality with which they presided over their deliberations; and we are sure their amiable and liberal deportment have secured for them the respect and honor of all who have attended the sittings of the Legislature. The Valedictory of the two Speakers were very affecting—and all parted, we believe, to use the expression of Mr. Dobbin, "with a warm affection for the Union of our great country, and determination to cherish and defend the rights and honor of the old North State." We wish the members a safe arrival at their homes, and the State increased prosperity from their deliberations.

DISCHARGE OF THE JURY IN GENERAL HENDERSON'S CASE—THE MARKETS. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22. The case of the Government vs. General Henderson, charged with participating in the Cuba invasion, was brought to a close on the 21st and given to the jury, who after being out for a considerable time, were unable to agree. They were accordingly discharged by the court. It is presumed a new trial will take place.

THE STEAMSHIP ATLANTIC. All sorts of speculations and conjectures continue to be indulged at New York, relative to the mysterious non-appearance of the steamship Atlantic. It is proposed in some quarters to fit out a steamer with fuel and provisions, to scour the ocean in search of her—in others that a sail vessel be sent off, etc., etc. It is suggested, however, in opposition to these schemes that it is better to wait for the arrival of the Canada, now nearly due at Halifax, as the opinion is gaining strength that the missing vessel will have turned up somewhere on the coast of Ireland.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 24, 1851. It has been discovered that the paying teller of the Bank of Louisiana is a defaulter to the amount of $80,000. He is missing, and is supposed to have committed suicide. The bank offers a reward of $500 for his apprehension.

MARRIED.

At St. John's Church, in Fayetteville, on Tuesday morning the 21st inst., by the Rev. Geo. Benton, Wm. M. Shipp, Esq., Attorney at Law of Rutherfordton, to Miss Catherine Lafayette, second daughter of the late Hon. John A. Cameron.

DIED.

On the 11th day of January, in the sixteenth year of her age, at the residence of her father in Pitt County, N. C., Miss Annie H. Lewis, daughter of Richard H. Lewis, Esq. late of Greene County, Alabama.

In Sacramento City, California, on the 7th Nov. last, in the 25th year of his age, Patrick Henry Ruffin, son of Col. B. J. G. Ruffin, of Franklin Co., North Carolina. He went to California from Missouri, in 1849, and located in Sacramento City last summer, in good health, but in a short time was afflicted with the prevailing disease of the country, and although at intervals apparently almost well, was unable to engage in any employment up to the 4th of November last, on which day he was suddenly attacked with cholera, in its most malignant form. He survived without pulse for three days, and on the 7th, his spirit was in another and a better world. His mind was unimpaired from the beginning to the end of his sickness. He was never contaminated by the corruptions of the society which surrounded him, and never forgot those moral principles imbibed in the days of his childhood. A consciousness of the purity of his life supported him, therefore, on the bed of sickness.

No one ever evinced more fortitude and resignation in the prospect of approaching dissolution, for at no time did he utter a murmur, and the tranquility of mind which he exhibited throughout, has never been surpassed. Before he was attacked by cholera he availed himself of his own incapacity for the regular pursuits of life, to administer to the wants of wretched and forlorn men, prostrated on the roots of trees—in deserted tents, and in other places where poverty dwelt. The extreme malignity of the disease, combined with an enfeebled state of the body, rendered his case hopeless from the beginning, but still no human appliances for his relief were spared by an assiduous and devoted brother, who was fortunately near to minister to his comfort, soothe his sufferings, and smooth his dying pillow in this his last dark hour of agony. These assiduities, alas! were fruitless; his mortal remains repose in the valley of the Sacramento!

$125 REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber, residing in Edgecombe county, four miles north of Tosnot Depot, and about a quarter of a mile from the Railroad, on or about the second of September last, his negro man named HARRY. Said Harry is about 40 years of age; 5 feet 5 inches high, or thereabouts; yellow complexion; stout built; has a scar on his left leg, from the cut of an axe; has very thick lips; eyes deep sunk in his head; forehead very square; tolerably loud voice; has lost one or two of his upper front teeth; and has a very dark spot on his jaw, supposed to be a mark.

Harry is a Carpenter by trade, and has been in the employment of a Railroad Company, in whose service he was when he runaway. He is well known along the line of the Road. It is supposed that he has obtained, or will endeavor to obtain, free papers from a free colored man living in Nash county, by the name of Moses Hagens, and assume his name, in order to make his way to a free State.

The above negro was once the property of Mrs. Copage, of Edgecomb county; afterwards he fell into the hands of Asiel Farmer, from whom he was purchased by Mr. Barnes, of said county, from whom I purchased him about six years ago. He will be certain to alter his name; probably to call himself Harry Copage, Farmer, or Barnes. He was last heard from on the 11th September, on the Newbern Road, about a mile and a half from Wilmington, enquiring the way to the Sound.

I will give the above reward to any person who will deliver him to me, or lodge him in any jail in the State; or One Hundred Dollars if lodged in any jail out of the State, so that I can get him again.

Captains of vessels are cautioned against taking the above negro away, under the severest penalty of the law.
